All FTSE indices to be held for one minute this afternoon

London, 12 September 2001: - In response to the tragic events in the USA yesterday, all FTSE indices will be held at 1345 BST today, for a period of one minute.

This move is in line with the suspended trading conditions, which will be observed by the London and other European stock exchanges today.

The FTSE Group Client Services desks and press offices worldwide will also observe one minute's silence.
