
CRH, Evraz and Polymetal International to join FTSE 100 Index

London, Wednesday 7 December 2011: FTSE Group ("FTSE") confirms today that, international building materials group, CRH, steel and mining company, Evraz, and precious metals producer, Polymetal International will be joining the FTSE 100 Index. In the rebalance, Inmarsat, Investec and Lonmin will leave the UK's leading index and enter the FTSE 250 Index.

The changes announced today are part of the impartial reviews approved by the independent FTSE Europe, Middle East and Africa Regional Committee. The rules-driven reviews ensure the UK indices continue to portray an accurate reflection of the market they represent, and form an essential component to the management of the indices.

The FTSE 250 Index will see the following changes (in alphabetical order):

Entering FTSE 250 Index	Exiting FTSE 250 Index (Entering FTSE Small Cap Index)
Bumi (New Entry)	Mothercare
Inmarsat	Pace
Investec	Premier Foods
John Laing Infrastructure Fund (New entry)	SThree
Lonmin	Thomas Cook Group

FTSE operates a reserve list for the FTSE 100 Index, to be used in the event of a corporate action occurring between reviews e.g. merger, acquisition, delisting or suspension. In such cases the reserve list constituent with the largest market capitalisation (on the date of the corporate action), will replace the outgoing constituent. With immediate effect, the following reserve list will be used:

FTSE 100 Reserve List (in descending order of Gross Market Capitalisation):

- Babcock International Group
- Croda International
- Wood Group (John)
- Pennon Group
- Aberdeen Asset Management
- London Stock Exchange Group

All changes from this review will be implemented at the close of business Friday, 16 December 2011 and take effect from the start of trading on Monday, 19 December 2011.

About FTSE Group

FTSE Group (FTSE) is a world-leader in the provision of global index and analytical solutions. FTSE calculates indices across a wide range of asset classes, on both a standard and custom basis. FTSE indices are used extensively by investors worldwide for investment analysis, performance measurement, asset allocation, portfolio hedging and the creation of a wide range of index derivatives, funds, Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs), and other structured products.

FTSE has built an enviable reputation for the reliability and accuracy of our indices and related data services. FTSE has a long tradition of listening and responding to the market so that it is at the forefront of developing new approaches to index design, many of which are now accepted as the market standard. FTSE prides itself in continuing to invest significant resource in researching and developing new index solutions.

The foundation for FTSE's global, regional, country and sector indices is the FTSE global equity universe, which covers over 8,000 securities in 48 different countries and captures 98% of the world's investable market capitalisation. FTSE's flagship global benchmark, the FTSE All-World, is used by investors worldwide to structure and benchmark their international equity portfolios.

Exchanges around the world have chosen FTSE to calculate their domestic indices. These include ATHEX, Bolsas y Mercados Españoles, Borsa Italiana, Bursa Malaysia, Casablanca SE, Cyprus Stock Exchange, IDX, JSE, LSE, NASDAQ Dubai, NYSE Euronext, PSE, SGX, Stock Exchange of Thailand and TWSE. In addition, FTSE works with a variety of companies and associations to deliver innovative index solutions which provide the market with fresh opportunities.
